

- Do you think that Judy Garland is a tragic figure? Why/why not?
- What do you think needs to happen in order for our culture to make its next steps towards gender equality?
- Why do you think we expect perfection from our celebrities? What do you think it says about us?
- Given the current conversation surrounding mental health issues, what would you say to Judy if you were given the chance?

Fishing for More

