

6.10

- Do you think that the sequel lives up to the legacy of the first film? Why/why not?
- Do you believe that change is something to be feared or embraced? Explain.
- What do you think it means to deal with our past? What does it take to make things right?
- Describe the film's relationship between community and individuality. Do you think it differs than the first film?

Fishing for More

